

Adam D. Acosta

Adam D. Acosta has been involved in business development and marketing since 2001. His formal education includes a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Texas at El Paso. In addition, he is a licensed real state professional in the state of Nevada.

Prior to joining Arcadia Management Group, Adam enjoyed careers in marketing, management and business development. He began as a marketing representative for one of the nations leading pharmaceutical companies where he successfully launched several new products. Adam continued his career playing an integral role in the commercial development of several branches of a medical equipment division for one of the Southwest's leading rehabilitation organizations. Adam served as the director of operations and was extensively involved in several other commercial development projects. It was this valuable experience that led Adam to join Arcadia Management Group, where he currently manages commercial and office properties. Adam can be reached through our Nevada office.
