

Gary L. Shaw, Jr.

Gary Shaw has been involved in the leasing, management and development of commercial, income-producing real estate since 1998. His formal education includes a Bachelor of Science Degree in Public Programs from Arizona State University. In addition, he is a licensed real estate broker in the states of Arizona, California, Nevada and Washington.

Gary in the past 10 years has been instrumental in the development, re-development and management of over 2.5 million square feet of commercial income producing real estate. Gary currently serves Arcadia Management Group, Inc. as Vice President and Designated Broker. He acts in the capacity of Director of Property Management Services and oversees the management of 6 million square feet of commercial real estate and consults for several development companies. His expertise in Yardi accounting for property management has greatly enhanced the assets' financial reporting. His ability to add value to projects through Tenant retention and operating expense savings has made a tremendous impact on the assets under management.

Gary is a member of International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) and Urban Land Institute (ULI).
