

Peggy C. Burgess
Founder

Peggy Burgess has been involved in the leasing, management and development of commercial, income - producing real estate since 1981.

Ms. Burgess's formal education includes a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Arizona State University and graduate studies in finance and marketing.

During her attendance at Arizona State University, Ms. Burgess began working for The Arizona Bank.

In 1975, Ms. Burgess left The Arizona Bank to pursue a lending career specifically in real estate. She joined Greater Arizona Savings and Loan and was responsible for the approval of both residential and commercial loans. In 1978 she moved to First National Bank of Arizona (now Wells Fargo Bank) as a commercial loan officer. .

In 1981, Ms. Burgess left banking and become the Corporate Controller for Murdock Management Company. In that position Ms. Burgess was responsible for all financial aspects of the corporation as well as the entire portfolio of fee management business. The portfolio totaled two million square feet and included the eighteen story First Interstate Tower located on Central Avenue north of Osborn Road. During that tenure, Ms. Burgess was involved in the sale of the First Interstate Building to Trammell Crow Partners. Mr. Pederson later changed the name to Pederson Realty Group and actively pursued development work. In November, 1986 Ms. Burgess formed Arcadia Management Group to concentrate its efforts on property management. The philosophy of Arcadia Management Group is to provide the highest quality fee management available in the marketplace. The portfolio includes institutional as well as individual investors who understand the need for very specialized management of their assets. Included in the portfolio are retail, office and industrial projects. Currently, the portfolio totals over five million square feet. During the past ten years, Ms. Burgess has acted in the capacity of receiver for several properties, protecting the interests of lenders, ranging from individuals to banks and life insurance companies. Ms. Burgess is active in NNCREW, the National Network of Commercial Real Estate Women as well as civic organizations.